

I ask that the FCC reject the NAB's petition against satellite radio providers such as XM radio. I enjoy listening to XM radio and do not think that the government should tell me what I can and can not listen to.